Section 122 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Convening a meeting upon the request of a minority

- (1) A general meeting shall be convened if shareholders whose aggregate holding is not less than one-twentieth of the share capital require such meeting in writing, stating the purpose and grounds; such request shall be addressed to the Executive Board. The articles of association may provide that the right to request a general meeting is to depend on another form and on holding a lower proportion of the share capital. The applicants have to prove that they have been shareholders for at least 90 days prior to the day of the receipt of the demand and that they will continue to hold the shares until the decision of the managing board regarding their request is made. Section 121 para. 7 shall apply correspondingly.
- (2) In the same way shareholders, whose shares amount in aggregate to not less than one-twentieth of the share capital or represent a proportional amount of not less than 500,000 Euro, may request to have items placed on the agenda and published. Every request for a new agenda item must be accompanied by an explanation of the reasons therefor or a proposed resolution. The request in accordance with sentence 1 must be received by the Company at least 24 days, in case of public companies at least 30 days prior to the general meeting; whereby the day of the receipt is not counted.
- (3) If any such request is not complied with, the court may authorize the shareholders who made the request to convene a general meeting or publish such items. At the same time the court may appoint the chairman of the meeting. The notice of the meeting or the publication shall refer to such authorization. An appeal may be made against the decision of the court. The applicants have to prove that they will continue to hold the shares until the decision of the court is made.
- (4) The Company shall bear the costs of the general meeting and, in the case of paragraph 3, also the court costs if the court grants the application.

Section 124 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Publication of requests for supplements; proposals for resolutions (excerpt)

- (1) If the minority has requested pursuant to Section 122 para. 2 that items shall be added to the agenda, these items shall be published either upon convening the meeting or immediately following receipt of the request. Section 121 para. 4 shall apply analogously; moreover, Section 121 para. 4a shall apply analogously to public companies. Publication and submission shall be made in the same way as applicable for convening the meeting.

Section 121 of the German Stock Corporation Act: General provisions (excerpt)

- (4) The convening of the general meeting shall be published in the company's journals. If the shareholders of the Company are known by name, the shareholders' meeting may be convened by registered letter, unless the articles of association provide otherwise; the day of dispatch shall be considered the day of publication.
- (4a) In case of public companies which have not exclusively issued registered shares or which do not send the convention directly to the shareholders pursuant to para. 4 sentence 2, the notice shall, at the latest on the date of announcement, be furnished to such suitable media as may be expected to disseminate the information throughout the European Union.

- (7) In case of deadlines and dates which are calculated back from the date of the meeting, the day of the meeting itself shall not be included in the calculation. Adjourning the meeting from a Sunday, Saturday or a holiday to a preceding or following working day shall not be an option. Sections 187 to 193 of the German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch) shall not be applied analogously. In case of unlisted companies, the articles may provide for a different calculation of the deadline.

Section 70 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Computation of the period of shareholding

If the exercise of rights arising from a share shall require the shareholder to have been the holder of the share for a certain period of time, the right to claim transfer from a bank, a financial services institution or an enterprise active according to section 53 para. 1 sentence 1 or section 53b para. 1 sentence 1 or para. 7 of the Banking Act shall be deemed equivalent to ownership. The period during which the share was owned by a predecessor in title shall be attributed to the shareholder, if he acquired the share without consideration from his fiduciary, as universal successor, upon severance of co-ownership, or as a result of a transfer of assets pursuant to section 13 of the Insurance Supervision Act or section 14 of the Building Savings Bank Act.

Countermotions pursuant to section 126 para. 1 AktG and election proposals pursuant to section 127 AktG

In addition, the Company's shareholders may send countermotions to proposals put forth by the Executive Board and/or the Supervisory Board concerning specific agenda items as well as election proposals. All countermotions (including explanation), election proposals and other shareholder inquiries regarding the Annual General Meeting are to be sent to the following address only:

reasons for the countermotion if the other requirements for publication pursuant to section 126 AktG have been met. Any statements by the Company's management will also be published at the same internet address.

Pursuant to section 127 sentence 2 AktG, shareholders must not provide reasons for proposals for the election of Supervisory Board members and auditors. In addition to the reasons specified in section 126 para. 2 AktG, the Executive Board is not required to publish an election proposal that does not contain the name, profession and domicile of the candidate, among others. Proposals concerning the election of Supervisory Board members are not required to be made available if they are not accompanied by information on the proposed candidate's appointments to other statutory supervisory boards as defined in section 125 para. 1 sentence 5 AktG.

Please be advised that countermotions and proposals for elections that have been submitted to the Company on time and in advance of the Annual General Meeting shall only be considered at the Annual General Meeting if they are also submitted orally to the Annual General Meeting.

This does not affect the right of each shareholder to submit countermotions to the Annual General Meeting concerning various items on the agenda and election proposals for Supervisory Board members (if on the agenda) and auditors without submitting them in advance and on time to the Company.

The relevant sections of the German Stock Corporation Act upon which those shareholder rights are based and which also set forth under which preconditions counter-proposals and election proposals do not need to be made available are as follows (convenience translation only):

Shareholder's right to information pursuant to section 131 para. 1 AktG

Every shareholder and shareholder representative may ask the Executive Board at the Annual General Meeting to provide information on matters pertaining to the Company to the extent that such information is necessary for making a reasonable assessment of an agenda item and provided there is no statutory right to refuse to provide the information requested.

The obligation to provide information also applies to the legal and business relationship of the Company with an affiliate, the situation of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements. As a rule, all such requests for information should be made orally at the Annual General Meeting. The Executive Board may refrain from answering certain questions if the circumstances apply that are outlined in section 131 para. 3 AktG, particularly when – according to reasonable business judgment – providing the information is likely to cause substantial damages to the Company or an affiliate.

The relevant sections of the German Stock Corporation Act upon which those shareholder rights are based and which also set forth under which preconditions the Executive Board can refuse to answer are as follows (convenience translation only):

Section 131 of the German Stock Corporation Act: Shareholders right to information

- (1) Each shareholder shall upon request be provided with information at a general meeting by the executive Executive Board regarding the company's affairs, to the extent that such information is necessary to permit a proper evaluation of the relevant item on the agenda. The duty to provide information shall also extend to the company's legal and business relations with any connected enterprise. If a company makes use of the simplified procedure pursuant to section 266 para. 1 sentence 3, section 276 or section 288 of the German Commercial Code, each shareholder may request that the annual financial statements be presented to him at the general meeting on such annual financial statements in the form which would have been used if such simplified procedures were not applied. The disclosure obligation of the executive Executive Board of the parent company (section 290 para. 1, 2 of the German Commercial Code) in the general meeting, to which the consolidated financial statements and the consolidated management report is presented, also extends to the situation of the consolidated group of companies and of the enterprises included in the consolidated financial statements.
- (2) The information provided shall comply with the principles of conscientious and accurate accounting. The articles of association or the by-laws according to section 129 can authorize the chairman to set appropriate time limits in regards to shareholders' right to ask questions and speak and to make other determinations in this matter.
- (3) The Executive Board may refuse to provide information:
  1. to the extent that providing such information is, according to sound business judgement, likely to cause not insignificant damage to the company or a connected enterprise;
  2. to the extent that such information relates to tax valuations or the amount of individual taxes;
  3. on the difference between the value at which items are shown in the annual balance sheet and the higher value of such items, unless the general meeting is to adopt the annual financial statements;
  4. on methods of arriving at balances and valuation, if disclosure of such methods in the notes suffices to provide a factually accurate picture of the condition of the company's assets, financial position and profitability within the meaning of section 264 para. 2 of the German Commercial Code; this shall not apply if the general meeting is to adopt the annual financial statements;

5. insofar as provision of the information would render the Executive Board criminally liable;
6. insofar as, in the case of a bank or a financial services institution, information on methods adopted of arriving at balances, valuation and effected settlements does not require to be given in the annual financial statements, management report, consolidated financial statements or consolidated management report;
7. insofar as such information is available on the webpage of the company at least for a period of seven days prior to the general meeting and throughout the general meeting.

Provision of information may not be refused for other reasons.

- (4) If information has been provided to a shareholder, by reason of his status as a shareholder, outside the general meeting, such information shall upon request be provided to any other shareholder at the general meeting, even if such information is not necessary to permit a proper evaluation of an item on the agenda. The Executive Board may not refuse to provide such information on the grounds of paragraph 3 sentence 1 nos. 1 to 4. Sentences 1 and 2 shall not apply if a subsidiary enterprise (section 290 para. 1, 2 of the German Commercial Code) an enterprise with common management (section 310 para. 1 of the German Commercial Code) or an associated enterprise (section 311 para. 1 of the German Commercial Code) discloses the information to a parent enterprise (section 290 para. 1, 2 of the German Commercial Code) for the purposes of inclusion of the information in the consolidated financial statements of the parent enterprise and the information is necessary for that purpose.
- (5) A shareholder who has been denied information may request that his question, and the reason for which the information was denied, be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
